

Devotional

“Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.”
-Ephesians 4:31-32 (NASB)

We all have that one friend as your walking downtown you can hear him jumping and running bouncing off random surfaces yelling out “Parkour!!!” As he’s just being himself letting all emotions go to the side and not stopping him from enjoying life.

Today's verse speaks of letting go of all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor and slander along with malice. It goes on to say that we should be kind, tenderhearted, and forgiving. In order for us to live a life of enjoyment we needed to listen and trust his words. How many of us are hanging on to those things that we need to let go of and trust God? The baggage we carry with us can keep us from living a life full of all Gods glory. I challenge you today to walk in the grace and mercy of Jesus, not letting the fruit of this world to take root. Maybe do a little “Parkour” off a few surfaces yourself. What are you holding on to?
